

NECA 2011 San Diego

Closing Celebration

Tuesday, October 25, 2011 • 8:00 pm • North Embarcadero

Al Jardine and the Endless Summer Band

Al Jardine, a member of the Beach Boys for more than 35 years, sang lead on “Help Me, Rhonda” as well as a number of other Beach Boys standards, but mostly he was the band’s rhythm guitarist and harmony vocalist and wrote or co-wrote many of the songs that made it famous. His work earned him a place in the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and a Lifetime Grammy.

But now Al has a brand-new gig. He released his first full-length solo studio album, A Postcard from California, last year. And, his Endless Summer Band, featuring many of the musicians that toured with the boys of the beach, gets around to events and celebrations all over the country where their unmatched musical variety and non-stop, familiar mega-hits mix guarantee that their audiences dance, dance, dance the night away.

Al Jardine and ESB will star at our Closing Celebration in the perfect setting for airing those smooth Southern California sounds—in an outdoor waterfront concert with all the amenities that make for a perfect evening. A cash bar will be available, and for the first time, we’re offering a gourmet snack pack to enjoy while you lounge on your blanket or in your chair and enjoy the smooth, beach sound of Al Jardine and the Endless Summer Band!

New this year! After-Dinner Snack Pack

Enjoy the outdoor concert while you enjoy your after-dinner snack. Each Snack Pack includes: Baby Bel cheese, wedge of sharp cheddar cheese, wedge of Swiss cheese, crispy flatbread, red seedless grapes, strawberry, and a chocolate espresso brownie bite. Your snack pack will be waiting for you at the concert site!
